A newsletter of the Jubilee Golf Club

February 2018

Sponsors: are the key to our club's success, look around at their signs as you play, and support them.

When you do use one of our sponsors remember to let them know that you are a Jubilee Golf Club member.

Gordon Hines

The JGC Board wishes to acknowledge the resignation of Gordon Hines from the Board due to increasing work commitments and thanks him for the valuable contributions he has made to the success of our club. Gordon assures us we can still look forward to his continued involvement in other ways.

Any members interested in filling a 1 year Casual Board Vacancy are invited to contact either Alan White (Pres) or Diane Murphy (Sec). Particular member's skills and interests can be matched to responsibilities.

How to mark NTP

Direction to hole

Ball marker

Remember

Never mark the position of your great shot for Nearest The Pin with a V scratch in the green.

If the NTP marker is going to be close to the front of the hole and will impede another player's ball dropping into the hole, mark your NTP equal distance away but behind the hole.

JGC Monthly Dinner

When: 24th March

Venue: Malthouse Brewery

6.30 for 7.00 p.m.

Add your name to the list on the Clubhouse notice board.

Encouragement Award

Congratulations go to Fraser Holland-Dean for winning the Encouragement Award at the Juniors Presentation Night last year.

'I was really happy and excited when I won a Jubilee Golf Club Membership and look forward to playing lots of golf'.

-Fraser Holland-Dean

Golf Quip

A good golf swing is like a chain reaction, with one sequence of events easily following another.
