The Golf Gospel (1-7)

I hope this helps you understand the game of golf.

1. Eighteen holes of match play will teach you more about your foe than 18 years of dealing with him across a desk.—Grantland Rice
2. Golf appeals to the idiot in us and the child. Just how childlike do golf players become? This is proven by their frequent inability to count past five.—John Updike
3. It is almost impossible to remember how tragic a place the world is when one is playing golf.—Robert Lynd
4. If profanity had any influence on the flight of the ball, the game of golf would be played far better than it is.—Horace G. Hutchinson
5. They say golf is like life, but don't believe them. Golf is more complicated than that.
-- Gardner Dickinson
6. If a lot of people gripped a knife and fork as poorly as they do a golf club, they'd starve to death.—Sam Snead
7. Golf is a day spent in a round of strenuous idleness.—William Wordsworth
