

Jubilee Jottings

A newsletter of the Jubilee Golf Club

January 2020

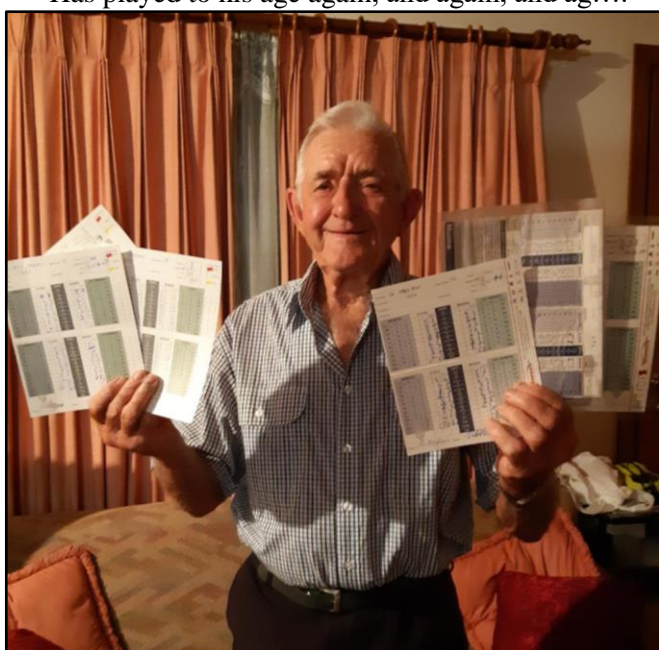

Sponsors: are the key to our club's success, look around at their signs as you play, and support them. When you do use one of our sponsors remember to let them know that you are a Jubilee Golf Club member.

When marking your NTP please do not scratch a V into the green.

Greg Hogan

Has played to his age again, and again, and ag....

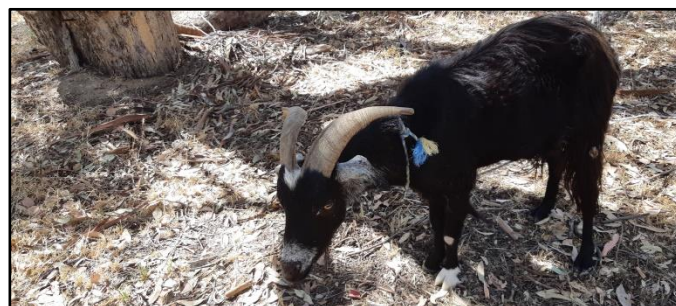

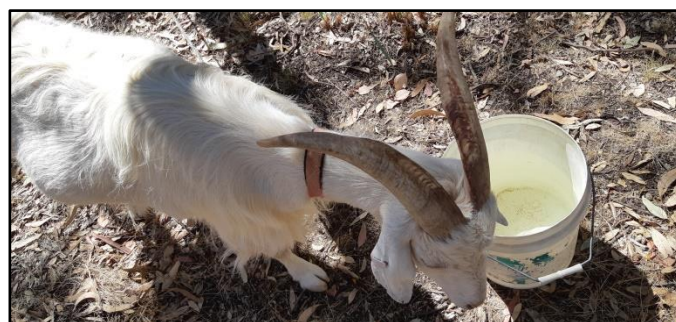

Greg did it the first time in 2012 aged 80, then twice in 2015 aged 83. In 2018 aged 86, he had 85 and in both November and December last year he again played to his age (87). Well done Greg, keep up the great golf.

Vic 4BBB

This is a reminder to get in ASAP for the Vic 4BBB on Sunday February 16th, entry is online with the Golf Australia website. Jubilee club members pay a reduced entrance fee for their pair of $60, whereas non-Jubilee GC members pay $90 per pair.

Attention Cart Owners

Expressions of interest from Cart owners are required:
Would anyone be interested in paying $3500 in advance for cart storage fees to have a personal cart shed built.
Please contact a board member to discuss your interest in this topic.

Disabled Toilet

A draft regarding the possible upgrade for a disabled toilet/cage area/spike bar is on the board in the main club room.

Golf Quip

Seventeen percent of sales reps
who play golf with clients admitted in a Gallup Poll that they routinely let their clients win.

Next Meeting

of the board will be held on Monday, the 17th of February at 7.00 pm and any items you want addressed at that meeting should be sent in writing to the secretary.
